Testimonials

Our clients help us to make our business what it is, here is what they say about Williams Ridout:

I have been having bespoke furniture made for 10 years, and I have finally found the Holy Grail. The attention to the client's wishes and requirements was combined with very diplomatically phrased, technically and artistically excellent suggestions that were universally beneficial for the projects. Everything that they have produced for me has been even better than I have imagined it could be. Throughout the work, I felt they treated my home so respectfully: it was always left clean and as tidy as possible at the end of each day. The projects have been on budget and on schedule. However, by far and away the most important factor is the impeccable craftsmanship. The end results have never failed to impress me or my guests. These guys deserve all the praise they get.

Williams Ridout came highly recommended and they have not disappointed. We have had a full kitchen, kitchen shelves and a series of shelving and storage units designed and installed all to a very high quality. The attention to detail is outstanding and the willingness to discuss the project thoroughly before hand has left us with exactly what we had hoped for. These are dedicated and talented gentlemen artisans and we will call them back in a second if we ever need any other carpentry or joinery work done!

We are absolutely delighted with the bespoke mirrored wardrobe, teak and corian vanity unit and shelves that Williams Ridout designed and built for us. Their attention to detail is impeccable, and we were consulted every step of the way on everything from the interior finishes to the fillets, trim etc. The finished articles look stunning - even better than we had imagined, and absolutely immaculate. Plus Joe, Alistair and Enrique were a pleasure to deal with, utterly accommodating, and left our house even tidier than when they started! Having stumbled across them ourselves via a Google search, we would now recommend them to anyone. The craftsmanship is of top quality and they are very lovely chaps, too...

Floor to ceiling glass fronted fitted wardrobe, with ample storage for both my husband and myself (quite a feat, what with the handbag and shoe collection . . .). And the glass frontage a brilliant idea making the bedroom seem twice it's size and reflecting light back into what was a nice but dark room. Oh, and they are two of the most personable, hard-working masters of their craft you could wish to meet! Highly recommended.

Williams Ridout were not the first operation we had commissioned to make furniture for us, but they are by a long way the best. Professional operators who really enjoy the work they do and produce the best. We have no hesitation in recommending them to our friends. They deliver on time, to budget with a quality second to none.

We set our son up in a flat in Shoreditch. He found this company and he and I visited the premises. They warmly welcomed us and showed us the materials and how the units would be constructed. Our son provided WR with, we were told, very detailed sketches etc and explained how they would go about the project, timing and payment etc. In fact, the project started a week earlier and the kitchen was installed perfectly despite the fact there were problems re the floor which WR sorted for us at no extra cost. My wife has just returned from visiting our son and stated that WR have done a marvellous job. She really likes the kitchen and the way the bespoke design and quality of construction has utilised the space in the odd shaped kitchen. Our son stated that WR worked their socks off to get all the work done and returned to make sure the finishing touches were perfectly done. The result is now utilising the full area in the kitchen and provides a kitchen which my wife is rather envious!! We would very happily use them again for our next project. The work is of excellent quality.

The seriously amazing aspect of Williams Ridout is the accuracy and solidity of construction: my kitchen base units were all bespoke sizes to fit into an unusual space and the doors did not require any site adjustment! After installation on a typical wobbly floor all vertical gaps were perfectly aligned and consistent with each other. Now that's impressive.

We have an architect-designed apartment that had no storage and no obvious place to build it. There was one unusually large room downstairs that would accommodate the storage we needed. We immediately recognised that Williams Ridout had the design sensibility and level of expertise to build beautifully understated, bespoke furniture. To solve our problem, they designed and built a structure with a false wall shortening the length of the room. With the wall stopping short of the ceiling the room became a more usable space, while screening off extensive closet space on its reverse. The new structure works seamlessly with the existing architecture complementing the overall scale of the room. The cupboards have been lined in cedar veneer; the fit and detailing is immaculate. We could not be more pleased with the end result.

I am absolutely thrilled with my new wardrobe. The team helped a lot in designing it and made good suggestions to maximize the (non) available space. The guys who installed it were fabulous – quiet and incredibly tidy... never before had tradesmen ask for herbal tea though! The best thing though was when we ran into a problem months after the installation – Joe and Alistair were excellent in getting it sorted. Great design and client service. Thanks.

I am amazed by Williams Ridout's superb craftsmanship; not only are they extremely professional in every way, they also make every attempt to provide the best solutions for their clients, regardless of difficulty. I am especially impressed by their immaculate attention to detail and certainly by the quality of their work.

Williams Ridout provided an excellent service from start to finish. They have an incredible attention to detail and strived to ensure that I was completely happy with their service and product. Their experience, advice and suggestions were invaluable in helping me formulate what I wanted the end product to be like and no small tweak to the design was too much trouble. I valued their integrity throughout the design and build process and am very pleased with their team's output and workmanship.

It was great working with Joe, Alistair and the rest of the team at Williams Ridout. We had an informal meeting over a cup of coffee to discuss our requirements for a large bespoke bed which resulted in them delivering perfection in design and craftsmanship, on time and within our budget.

Tony Tsindos - King Size Bed

From my point of view the expression 'Big Fish, Small Pond' counts for you guys. Thank you and best of luck.

There are lots of things to like about Williams Ridout. Yes, they transformed my vague ideas about 'more storage space for my clothes' into a whole new facet to the bedroom. The fine craftsmanship and thoughtful design has radically enlivened the room. But more than that, they worked quickly, efficiently and without mess. These guys are seriously good at what they do and I'd recommend them to anyone.

Lack of wardrobe space had been an issue of mine for some time until a friend recommended Williams Ridout to me. I soon realised that they were experts in their field when they were making storage suggestions that I would never have considered. The construction and finish of my wardrobe is just so perfect that every time I use it I smile. What a team, thank you!
